PREPARATION AND EXPERIENCE YIELD INFORMED DECISION-MAKING.

Grove Eisen Karlen, founded in 2009, brought together experienced trial lawyers with a unique blend of abilities, recognized for their passion and skill in representing clients in complex civil litigation.

Four of the firm's partners have been selected to the 2014 Missouri & Kansas Super Lawyers list. They lead a team prepared to advance their clients' causes through hard work, attention to detail, dedication and keen litigation instinct. The firm handles a diverse docket of civil cases including complex personal injury, family law, commercial, employment and fiduciary matters.

The firm's lawyers have served as lead counsel on more than 150 jury and nonjury trials in addition to substantial appellate work. The firm recognizes the importance of combining courtroom skills with the ability to offer clients prudent advice regarding the risk and reward of litigation. "We pride ourselves on being totally prepared each time we walk into the courthouse, which enables us to evaluate likely outcomes and help our clients avoid unnecessary risks associated with the litigation process," says Gary Growe.
